LEVY'S LEATHERS NO. 1 STRETCH

Even a Les Paul feels light as air when suspended by this resilient rubber and polyester weave.

FOR: Lead players with heavy axes. The arm of the fretting hand has more freedom to swivel, because the shoulder and elbow are never fighting to keep the neck up. A subtle bungee-bounce as the strap gives and snaps back is more noticeable as you move up in guitar weight, but even solid body guitars and basses feel buoyant with the No. 1 Stretch.

NOT FOR: Costume designers. The No. 1 Stretch is only available in black. Levy's does offer many more eye-catching strap designs.
