PIONEER CDJ-350-W DIGITAL MEDIA PLAYERS AND DJM-350-W TWO-CHANNEL MIXER

WHITE KNIGHT

If you find horizons blanketed in pristine snow enchanting, perhaps you'll be similarly enamored of the new pearl-white version of Pioneer's entry-level DJ system, featuring two CDJ-350-W digital media players and a DJM-350-W two-channel mixer. The system allows DJs to flex their remixing skills using MP3, AAC, WAV and AIFF files, while automatically organizing tracks by genre using Pioneer's rekordbox music management software. The change of appearance follows similar expansions of color choice for the company's entry-level DJ headphones, the HDJ-500, a few months ago. And the look isn't the only new wrinkle—the pearl-white Pioneer DJ system introduces Noise and Short Echo effects.
